

SCIENCE SATURDAYS

Join us for this series of programs which explore water usage and conservation, gardening and innovation!

Ages 4-7.

EXPLORE

EPHRATA PUBLIC LIBRARY

550 South Reading Road • Ephrata, PA 17522
717.738.9291 • www.ephratapubliclibrary.org

Sponsored by Clay & Ephrata Townships and Ephrata & Akron Boroughs

Saturday, January 13, 10 a.m.

Learn about water run-off and explore how it can cause pollution and lead to erosion.

Saturday, February 10, 10 a.m.

Learn about water purification and build a model!

Saturday, March 10, 10 a.m.

Learn about innovative conservation solutions around the globe and design a system that cleans or conserves water.

Saturday, March 24, 10 a.m.

Learn smart gardening for the environmentally conscious. Explore the pros and cons of crop rotation, rainwater gardens, native plant landscaping and rain barrels.